Renewable Energy Systems to Benefit Local Schools and Businesses

Edinboro, PA - Pennsylvania Fuels for Schools and Beyond, a statewide working group promoting local, renewable energy alternatives to Pennsylvania schools and businesses, is holding a public meeting on Thursday, December 3rd from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at the Pogue Center of Edinboro University in Edinboro, PA. Any individual, organization, or business should attend if they are interested in discovering how sustainably harvested native grasses, wood, and energy crops can provide commercial heat at significant cost savings over fossil fuels. The public meeting will be held in the Frank Zahorchak Seminar Room of the Pogue Center at 405 Scotland Road, Edinboro, PA.

The meeting being held in conjunction with Edinboro University's Green Energy Fair will provide an introduction to the use of biomass for energy and why it is a good choice for space heat; the technology and equipment used in a typical installation; and the economic cost benefits of selecting such a system. Edinboro University will also be holding a Green Energy Fair from 4:30-7:30 PM and Green Energy Workshops from 7:30- 8:30 PM at the Pogue Center this same date. For more information on Edinboro University's Green Energy Fair, please visit their website <http://EdinboroGreenWeek.org>. The public is invited Please RSVP by December 2 to reserve your spot, although walk-ins are welcome. To RSVP, or for more information, please contact Wes Ramsey of the Penn Soil RC&D Council at 814-226-8160 ext 119 or by email at wes.ramsey@pa.usda.gov.
